

Key Knowledge

There are seven continents across the world. These are: Europe, Asia, North America, South America, Africa, Oceania and Antarctica.

There are five oceans across the world. These are: Pacific, Atlantic, Indian, Arctic and Southern.

The closer you get to the equator the warmer the climate is and that the further away you get from the equator the colder the climate is.

Ernest Shackleton was an explorer and a sailor. He is significant because he is considered to be one of the most inspirational explorers and leaders of the 20th Century. He carried out expeditions by ship to Antarctica.

HMS Endurance was the ship Shackleton and his men sailed on from 1914-1917 on their Imperial Trans-Antarctic Expedition.

The ocean can be a dangerous place and there are safety procedures in place to help people stay safe at sea.

A poet is somebody who writes a poem. The Owl and the Pussy-Cat was written by Edward Lear in 1868.

Big Ideas

The world is made up of continents and oceans.

People travel across the oceans on ships and boats and which have evolved over time.

Sources can provide us with information and answers to questions about the past.

There are different climates around the world and the weather conditions will vary depending on season and location.

Each animal needs different things in order to survive and this will depend on the climate in which they live.

A poem is a form of communication that uses imaginative words to share ideas, emotions or a messages with the reader.

Key Vocabulary

Continent	A large solid area of land separated from others by water.
Ocean	A large area of saltwater.
Equator	An imaginary circle around Earth . It divides Earth into two equal parts: the Northern Hemisphere and the Southern Hemisphere.
Climate	A description of the average weather conditions in a certain place for the past 30 or so years.
Evolved	To change or develop.
Atlas	A bound collection of maps.
Expedition	A journey undertaken by a group of people with a particular purpose.

Reflective Questions

Ask me this....

Can you name the 7 continents and 5 oceans?

How does the equator affect the climate?

How has travel across the ocean changed over time?

Who is Ernest Shackleton and why is he significant?

What do you like/dislike about The Owl and the Pussy-cat poem and why?

Supporting Texts

